Dear Art,

Rhode Island's Office on Highway Safety has conducted a survey of all municipalities regarding their use of automated traffic enforcement systems in accordance with Us Code Title 23; Public law 114-94, Title IV.

The following communities responded that they have no form of automated enforcement. Barrington; Bristol; Burrillville, Central Falls; Coventry; Cranston; Cumberland; East Greenwich; East Providence; Foster; Glocester; Hopkinton; Jamestown; Johnston; Lincoln; Little Compton; Middletown; Narragansett; New Shoreham; Newport; North Kingstown; North Providence; North Smithfield; Portsmouth; Richmond; Scituate; Smithfield; South Kingstown; Tiverton; Warren; Warwick; West Greenwich; West Warwick; Westerly; Woonsocket; and the R.I. State Police.

The town of Charlestown employs Red light cameras.

The Cities of Pawtucket and Providence employ both Red-light camera and Speed cameras.

Please refer to the survey log for additional details.

Most Sincerely,

Gabrielle M. Abbate
Chief of Highway Safety
Rhode Island Department of Transportation
